

RAWLINGS TIGERS

Rawlings Tigers Behavior Guide

As members of the Rawlings Tigers, players, coaches, and family members are expected to behave in a manner which creates a positive image of the people, values and traditions associated with the Rawlings Tigers.

You are expected to not only uphold this standard but also the standards set forth by your local director, coach and the governing bodies of your leagues and tournaments.

Violations of the Behavior Guide may include:

- Bullying
- Discrimination
- Disruptive behavior
- Felony violation of the law
- Fighting
- Harassment
- Possession/use of illegal substances
- Racism
- Unethical conduct
- Vandalism

Consequences will be determined by the head coach and/or territory director.

The National Directors will support the decision of the head coach and/or territory director.
